Week of Sept. 11-14

We began all of our Daily 5 and Guided Math rotations this week! The students did a great job working independently on their literacy and math tasks. Let's keep up the awesome work! 😊

REMINDERS

Picture Day is Thursday, Sept. 20! If you would like to order pictures, please return the order form or order online. 😊

WE'RE LEARNING

READING: We read It's Mine by Leo Lionni and a poem called, "Fairhaven Friends."

WRITING: We discussed and wrote about what we want to be when we grow up. The students were very creative with their writing this week!

MATH: We continued discussing numbers 1-20, and began to discuss how to identify tens and ones.
